Dear sons we rounce more with you a few lines to let you know that we are all well at this present time thanks be to god for his mercies hoping you will receive these lines in due time in good health your uncle Robert white received the third and fourth letters you sent and we are truly glad to hear you are well this is the second letter our wheat we cut made 132 bushels we have got all the stock you left and have the best crop of corn we ever made and ~~now~~ have had the most rain which is injurious to our crops we have 13 young pigs and ~~all~~ our stock is doing well the rays is still in this country and we don't know how soon we will be broken up, write how you like where you are and the prices of corn and stock so nothing more at present to G. W. Crone
and E. M. Crone

Nancy Crone

Dear nephews I just rec'd your fathers and mothers letter for me to send you and as there is room in it I must write you a few lines to let you know that they have caught two of the Jemell boys they killed one and took the other prisoner and has him in the yard house at this place and pursued the balance close but have not caught them that last was heard from they are still travelling up the Rail Road in places that is not doing much harm to it. Turn over

I have nothing of any interest to write my family is all well I have been sick but am better at ~~this time~~ ~~now~~ Sherman's army is still in Atlanta—tell Jessie Martin that his wife will be there soon as the Road is put in order.
John B. Holley is at Jeffersonville. Indiana and Nancy is coming soon as she can and you must come to that place to see her when she gets there and she can tell you all the news. George I have wrote you 2 letters before this one. I will still answer your letters and am always glad to get letter from you as soon as I get a letter from you I send it to your father so that they may hear from you also.
I have nothing more at present but am yours as ever R. V. White

P.S. With regard to the Terrill Boys they stayed in the Georgia House for a few days and was exchanged with some Cherokees coveringly at this place and in a few days after had an army came up by Rome Ga. and up on the west side of the River to Rosaca and some came over to Calhoun. The Thair was no Yankers hear at that time they went back and up to Rosaca and demanded a surrender of the place tho the Yankers had got in the Rebels forts and could stand the air ground and would not surrender and thair was not any fight tho they went on to Dalton Ga. and then to Tunnel Hill and thair they had a fight and then turned to Alabama

I will know give you some account of Fathers family all is well and doing well they ^{have} not lost any of their stock when he came from last and their crop is very good My family is well nothing strange to write there is still some soldiers at this place when he came to up with his army Shermans army all fell back to Chattanooga and then they take up the people very hard long on the road for they all walked back to Chattanooga. Not well.

Jeffersonville Indiana 16 Nov 64

Dear Garrison

It is with the opinion that I have a few lines to let you know that I arrived home safe and found all well The father is well and getting along and every well I must I will be back this time. Write soon
Yours

Wm. H. Hall
Newark N. J. Hall is that doing much harm to it. even at Mr B. N. White: we receive that letter with pleasure for which we ought to return our thanks, fix my letter and send it on and in so doing you will oblige me James Croone Calhoun ga October the 31st

Dear George and Charles Croone Recd your letter & was glad to hear from you the reason that this letter has not even sent the same day that I wrote it the Road was tore up and that I have been na travelling since that day till now and Gen Hood's army came up here about the 10th inst and attacked Kesaca ga again but did not stay long for fear of another whooping went up to Dalton ga and there they cut and carved about a while and had to leave their in quick time and make for Alabama the last account heard from was at or near Blue mountain Gen Sherman is in close pursuit of Hood the Road has been tore up in such a condition that there has been no mail since till now and that they had a fight and then turned to Alabama
